

The poster features a large, textured background with a reddish-brown, aged parchment-like appearance. At the top, two large, close-up portraits of men with beards are shown. The man on the left has a long, thick, reddish-brown beard and is looking directly at the viewer with a serious expression. The man on the right has a dark, well-groomed beard and is looking slightly to the side. Below these portraits, the text 'LEUR FOI A DÉFIÉ UN EMPIRE.' is written in a serif font. In the center-right, there is a smaller, circular inset image showing a man in a long, dark robe standing on a rooftop or a high vantage point, looking out over a city at sunset or sunrise. The city is filled with ancient buildings and structures. The overall tone of the poster is dramatic and historical.
